FOUR INJURED AS AUTO CRASHES INTO POST AND TREE AT WAVELAND

Occupants Seriously Injured and Taken to King's Daughters Hospital, Bay St. Louis—Orleanians Were Visiting Waveland Relatives.

Driving along the railroad Waveland auto road, at a point between Nicholson and Coleman avenues, an automobile from New Orleans, carrying several occupants on their way to church, crashed into a concrete fence post and against a pine tree (the two obstructions adjoining) and was partly demolished.

The result was the victims of the car were seriously and painfully injured and taken to Bay St. Louis where they were received at the King's Daughters Hospital.

List of Victims.

The victims were Lawrence St. Pe, 2445 North Tonti street, New Orleans, fractured jaw; his son, Junior, 7 years old, fractured skull and bruises of the back and body; Fred Minor, 1325 Almonaster street, fractured left leg, and Mrs. Eda Edel, 2248 North Miro street, fractured left arm.

Joseph Lalote, also of New Orleans, who was driving the car, also was injured.

The four most seriously hurt were taken from the local hospital to New Orleans by train.

The party was spending the weekend with Mrs. Edel's mother, Mrs. Lucien Bourgeois, and sister, Mrs. Garfield Ladner, residents of Waveland.

Junior St. Pe, who was the most seriously hurt, was thrown through the windshield.

The little fellow's condition was considered serious at the hospital. He was conscious but his condition was viewed as critical.

From New Orleans, since then, relatives at Waveland, received word that all of the victims were doing as well as could be expected.

Lost Control of Car.

How the accident happened cannot be fully explained, only that the driver lost control of the car. The concrete post, carrying a barbed wire fence, is located on the beach side of the road, far into the clear of passing vehicles, and wheel marks show that the car swerved way out of its course in order to strike the line of post and the tree adjoining.

The tree is a pine of medium thickness, however, it stood the terrific impact, with the bark removed as the only visible sign that something of the kind had happened. The concrete post was broken into two with the reinforcement rod bent. If the tree had not been on the spot the damage would not have occurred save for a general bouncing and shaking up. The car was demolished in its compact with the immovable tree.

At The Hospital.

The injured were brought to the hospital in private automobiles. The victims were placed on cots, since the hospital was pretty well filled at the time, and here and there were the injured scattered, but well taken care of. They lacked nothing. Every hospital and medical attention was given. Mrs. Craft, nurse in charge, and assistants were busy throughout the day and local physicians made the wounded as comfortable as possible. Four cots were used for the number more seriously injured and were thus removed that afternoon to New Orleans.

LAKESHORE VETERAN OF WORLD WAR WINS IN FEDERAL COURT

Patient. Veterans' Hospital—Will Receive Close to $10,000—Wife and Two Children.

A federal court jury at Biloxi Wednesday morning returned a verdict in favor of Monroe L. Ladner, resident of Lakeshore, Hancock county, who is confined in the veterans' hospital at Gulfport and as a result of the verdict he will receive close to $10,000. The case was one of the first brought in under section 305.

He was awarded compensation for 10 per cent disability and on that date the amount due him was sufficient to receive a $10,000 insurance policy. Testimony of doctors and others were heard in the case, producing a large volume of testimony.

Monroe Ladner is well-known in the southern section of Hancock county. It will be noted with interest that he was reinstated whereby he will benefit by disability compensation, etc.

Annual Banquet Is Given at Inn-by-the-Sea Thursday Evening—With Some Sixty Guests.

MISS MIRIAM ENGMAN, PRESIDENT, PRESIDES AT FUNCTION.

National Officials Present—Number of Guests of Honor—Mrs. Stewart Honorary Member.

Bay St. Louis Review of the Woman's Benefit Association celebrated its twenty-first birthday with a formal banquet on Thursday night of last week at the Inn-by-the-Sea, on Bay of St. Louis, attended by some sixty guests and members.

In the number were included the official national guests, Mrs. Jennie Little, of Port Huron, Michigan; Mrs. Pearl H. Croy, of Birmingham, Ala.; and Mrs. Fay Arguelles, of Biloxi, Miss.

The other honor guests for the evening from Bay St. Louis, were Mrs. John N. Stewart, who was made an honorary member; Mrs. E. J. Leonard and Mrs. Charles G. Moorehead. With Miss Miriam Engman, president Bay St. Louis Review, who presided, and these included the number that sat at the head of the U-shaped table.

Miss Engman presided with her usual executive ability and personal charm of manner, talking of the happy occasion, the accomplishment for the order by the national guests present, and touched on the pageant at Chicago last year and her anticipatory remarks of the forthcoming convention to be held at Chicago summer of 1933, including a grand pageant, were all features of the evening.

The table was decorated by members of the organization, with cut flowers set effectively here and there. There were many spring flowers such as the Coast produces, including roses and other standard flowers.

The Inn faultlessly served a five-course dinner. During the evening a number of songs, words suited for the occasion were rendered.

Miss Irma Koch formally presented a basket of carnations to Miss Miriam Engman, coming from the organization and in recognition of her faithful and efficient services, as president. This carried great affection from the fellow members. Miss Engman was moved by such expression of tenderness and appreciation and responded to the gesture fittingly.

Mrs. Croy and Mrs. Little, who reside away from the Mississippi Coast, were given souvenirs of this section. To each a picture, in colors, of Coast scenes, appropriately inscribed, and framed in plaques of moulded texture, gilded and decorated with tiny roses in relief and in natural colors. These exquisite gifts were handiwork of Miss Levie Engman, whose well-known artistry weaved from two simple pictures these beautiful objects of art and serving as lasting souvenirs of a night in assembly on the Gulf Coast.

Association Soon to Build. It is not generally known, but the Association already has quite a substantial nest egg for the building of a clubhouse of its own, with assembly hall, reception and other rooms. This projected building will be constructed as early as practicable.

MARSHALL IS ILL AT CAPITAL

Bay St. Louis Attorney Collapses at Jackson After Undergoing Heavy Strain.

Information received here from Jackson Tuesday stated that Attorney Carl Marshall, had collapsed from a nervous breakdown and had been taken to the Baptist hospital, where Dr. S. J. Hooper is in charge of the patient, and from latest reports stated that he was "slightly better."

"There is no cause for immediate alarm," said Dr. Hooper, "but several weeks' rest will be necessary to restore his health."

Former Senator Marshall was in Bay St. Louis the last week-end and went to Jackson. It is said he went there for medical observation. According to friends, he has worried constantly over his professional affairs, aggravated all the more by the refusal of the Supreme Court last Monday week to reopen his case on writ of error. This motion, was overruled and Marshall expressed great disappointment over the ruling.

TO STAMP BEER BILL APPROVAL

Subcommittee to Report Plan Over Objection of One Member—Senate Group Favors.

Washington, March 15.—A bill to permit 4 per cent beer is to be reported favorably by a Senate manufacturing subcommittee this week over the objection of one of its three members.

Senator Henry D. Hatfield, Republican, West Virginia, declined today to subscribe to a report favoring the measure, which is sponsored by Senator Hiram Bingham, Republican, Connecticut, and began preparation of a minority report opposing it. The affirmative votes of Senators Jesse H. Metcalf, Republican, Rhode Island, and Robert J. Bulkley, Democrat, Ohio, will be sufficient to place the bill before the full committee.

The subcommittee reports, expected about Friday, will mark a shift of prohibition interest to the Senate from the House where yesterday a move to force a vote on a modification proposal was lost by 187 to 227.

In deciding whether to report the bill favorably and thus lay it before the Senate as a whole, members of the manufacturing committee will have 574 closely printed pages of testimony on both sides of the issue to consider.

WETS NOW CLAIM MORE POWER SINCE VOTE LAST MONDAY

Dry Leaders, On Other Hand, 'Gratified' By Vote Taken In House Of Representatives.

VARIOUS COMMENT AS EXPRESSED BY WET REPRESENTATIVE.

Drys, Too, Find Comfort In Vote As Cast—How the North and "Solid South" Voted.

Conflicting claims from both sides echoed the test of strength in the House Monday on submitting prohibition to the people once again.

The result—a 227 to 187 vote against considering a resolution proposing to amend the constitution by giving the states individual control over liquor—was hailed by wets and modificationists as presaging victory next time. The drys claimed the result proved their lines strong, though some conceded a gain to their foes.

Wet Claims. Here is some of the comment from the wet side:

Representative Linthicum, (D. Md.) leader of the wet bloc: "The fight is all but won. All we need is one more election."

Representative Beck, Pennsylvania Republican leader on the same side: "Today's vote makes it plain that if the Republican party adopts a dry platform in June it will court disaster."

Henry H. Curran, president Association against the prohibition Amendment: "Congress is catching up with the people. x x x Next time we will put it over."

S. Lusk, of the Crusaders: "x x x More than one member is sitting in Congress for the last time, because he missed his chance today. x x x Next session will see a wet majority."

The Congressional Districts Modification League: "x x x The longest step yet made towards the modification of the present prohibition laws."

Dry Claims.

Now hear the dry side: Representative Cooper (R. Ohio): "The wets seem to have made considerable gain since last year. x x x But it is a long way from the two-thirds necessary."

Representative Blanton (D. Tex.): "x x x The best thing that ever happened to the dry cause. They (the drys) will see to it that no new votes for repeal go to Congress."

Senator Sheppard (D. Tex.) co-author of the 18th amendment: "I am very much gratified at the showing. Edwin C. Dinwiddie, national prohibition board of strategy: "The decisive negative vote x x x reflects the mature judgment of the American people."

F. Scott McBride, Anti-Saloon League: "The vote shows that prohibition can hold the lines if the drys fight and that it will be lost unless they organize and fight."

LOUISIANA SURVEYING PARTY ENGAGED MARK- ING 'SHORT CUT' ROUTE

Engineers For Louisiana Highway Commission Working In Marshes In Effort to Ascertain Cost—Hancock County Ready To Go.

Engineers for the Louisiana Highway Commission Tuesday were working in the marshes northeast of the Rigolets bridge preparing new surveys for a "short cut" highway to connect New Orleans with the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Officials at Baton Rouge said that a "survey party" was placed at work in the marshes several days ago to do engineering work preliminary to the preparation of estimates of the cost of building a highway and bridges to connect Pearlport or Logtown by direct route with the Rigolets bridge.

A similar survey was made more than four years ago. The new surveys, according to officials, will be more thorough than that prepared previously.

Many Requests made. Requests for construction of a "short cut" highway between New Orleans and the Gulf Coast have been filed with the Louisiana Highway Commission over a period of several years by the Association of Commerce, Motor League of Louisiana and dozens of other organizations.

Hancock county citizens obtained a promise from their board of supervisors that the county would be ready with its share of the cost of bridging Pearl River at any time Louisiana officials were prepared to order the work started.

Senator Huey P. Long, then governor, advised the Mississippi Highway Commission that Louisiana would proceed with plans for building the "short cut" when the Mississippi body surfaced the Old Spanish Trail between Honey Island and Bay St. Louis.

10 Miles Surfaced. More than 10 miles of highway east of this island was "black topped" by the Mississippi Commission. Construction of the "short cut" highway would cut approximately 20 miles off the motoring distance between New Orleans and the coast.

It is estimated that it would bring the coast cities with an hour and a half drive, as compared with the much greater time now required for the circuitous route which at present includes a detour near Bay St. Louis. On the Mississippi end of the highway, approximately nine miles would have to be constructed through high lands from Lake Shore to Pearlport.

KILN BASKETBALL PLAYERS COMPLETE SPLENDID SEASON

Coach John Farmer's Wild-Cats of Kiln Vocational High Win 12 Games—Lose Six

Compiling the best record of a basketball team representing Kiln Vocational High School, Coach John Farmer's Wildcats turn from the hardwood towards baseball after winning 12 and losing six basketball games during the heavy 1932 season schedule.

Starting slow, but finishing with a rush that carried the Wildcats into the Gulf Coast Regional class B tournament finals only to topple before the strong McNeil Hi quintet in a last 45-second rally, Kiln defeated several of the outstanding association quintets.

Among the teams falling before the Wildcats' drive were Long Beach, Pass Christian, St. Paul's college of Covington, La., Bay St. Louis, Dedeaux and Pineville.

Of the 1932 machine, Coach Farmer will have the entire squad back next winter with the exception of Harrell and Garet, forward and stationary guard, respectively. But with such reserves as Cameron, O. Lader, H. Lader, A. Necaise, M. Necaise, Mauffray and Sautier coming up the Kiln mentor apparently has little of which to fret about.

WET TEST IN CONGRESS.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS brings the report Monday that the House of Representatives voted 227 to 187 against taking up legislation designed to turn back control of liquor to the States.

The vote, putting the members on record for the first time in 12 years on prohibition revision, was on whether to discharge the judiciary committee for jurisdiction over the Beck-Linthicum resolution for amendment of the eighteenth amendment.

It was forced under the liberalized Democratic rules, by 145 petitions after the measure, sponsored by both Democratic and Republican wet blocks, was defeated in committee by 14 to 6. The petitioners numbered 76 Republicans and 69 Democrats.

Two of the foremost Democrats, Representatives Rainey, of Illinois, and McDuffie, of Alabama, the party floor leader and whip, respectively, voted in favor of discharge motion.

The 187 votes commanded by the anti-prohibition forces was larger even than many of them expected. Early estimates of their strength ranged from 160 to 180.

Six Mississippi congressmen, Bushby, Collins, Doney, Hall, Kankin and Whittington voted against the amendment with Collier not voting. Since the death of Representative Quinn, Mississippi has only seven members in the House.

And thus we get the story from the Associated Press. That Mississippi voted dry was expected. Louisiana went 50-50. Four for and four against.

Democrats that forced this issue were liberally assisted by Republicans; the showing for wets is encouraging to the extent that prohibitionists are apprehensive. It is predicted the elections this year will go largely in favor of the wets and that when the matter is again presented to Congress for a vote, as it was last Monday, the figures will show a decided augmentation in favor of the matter of allowing each state to handle its own affairs on the subject to drink or not to drink. No one will oppose delegating to each State the privilege of attending to its own business.

"CONSTITUTION" TO VISIT COAST.

ARRIVAL of the frigate "Constitution" is due at Gulfport on the afternoon of March 24, according to official announcement. The historical vessel will remain in Gulfport until early morning March 29. It had been rumored the "Constitution" would not visit the Gulf Coast, regardless of previous announcement that it would. Now, through the Gulfport Chamber of Commerce, the reasoning announcement is published. This will be good news to thousands of children and others along this section.

Wealth must be something great, the way people kill themselves when they lose it.

From what we can gather the wets and the dries have different ideas as to what the people want.

One of the mysteries of living is how the neighbors manage to get along so well on so little.

The funny thing is not that a newspaper makes mistakes but that it makes them so seldom.

Advertising won't make dollars grow in hoarded places but it will bring them out of hiding.

Men who complain about how much work they have to do would feel better if they got some of it done.

Next fall, about October, the politicians will have the people stirred to a froth over electing a president.

To make the trade-at-home motto work it is as necessary for merchants to do their part as it is for buyers to contribute their patronage.

Hancock County's representative in the Legislature has at last been heard from. We see by the press he voted for the gross sales tax!

Reducing taxes is a popular cry, but a government, like a business, has to balance its books if it intends to continue operating.

Alert advertisers know the difference between a newspaper, for which readers pay, and a circular, which many people throw away.

Watching the clock has gotten few people jobs and it has caused a lot of workers to forget their work, and eventually lose their pay checks.

Voting for the Governor's pet measure keeps the wrath of the administration away and possibly some little fellow might get a bill through before he gets home to that constituency that made a big mistake.

A Gulfport newspaper carries a front page heading, "Wild Well Roaring in Jackson Field." There is a lot of wild roaring in another Jackson "field" and the braying can be heard all over the State.

MORE TAX MENACE.

THE GROSS SALES TAX is a mad measure. It imposes a tax of such proportion that is without rhyme or reason. It spells desperation and breeds revolution.

The trend of thought today in Mississippi is tax reduction. We must have it if we are going to continue to live honestly, decently and consistently.

Such a measure as proposed is out of all bounds. We are engrossed in economic endeavor. Every man and woman, by sheer necessity, and self-preservation, is exhausting every means to do with less and make the most out of the least.

The entire country, the whole state is torn to shreds on this subject of taxation. We are going through possibly the most trying period of depression in history, and at Jackson legislators are assembled in an effort to add additional burden of extortionate proportions.

It has been said, the passage of this bill, will make the rich richer and the poor poorer, for it is the poor, who less can afford to pay the tax that is ultimately passed on to the consumer. Inevitably the consumer gets it in the neck, pardon the expression, but it serves the purpose best.

We have no objection to make the rich richer. That occurs anyway. But we do register our objection with the majority to make the poor poorer.

Take in Bay St. Louis, for instance, right here at home. Burdened as we are with legitimate city, county and State tax, federal as well, an added 3 per cent on gross sales is out of all bounds of common reasoning, sane thinking and future reckoning.

The State might be bankrupt. Many of our people are practically without a penny, but let us pray Providence we may not all become bankrupt.

This issue of The Sea Coast Echo, carrying pages of delinquent tax sale lists, as in other counties in the State, largest lists in history, is a sad commentary. It is the best argument against more taxation.

Proponents of the sales tax bill say this is a different kind of taxation. But to us it is TAXATION just the same.

The Echo reminds readers that it occasionally likes to have subscriptions paid, not that it takes any money to run this journal, but merely as an indication that we are printing a paper worth paying for.

THE MERCHANT IS MARTYR.

THE MERCHANT appears to be a shining mark. It has been said that death loves a shining mark and while the phrase was not originally written to apply in that sense it fits nevertheless. The merchant of any community is the target for every ail, regardless of from where it emanates, affiliation, creed or purpose. There seems no limit.

The merchant is never exempt. His name appears on every paper. He is connected with every move. He must not only give his moral support but his time and money must always be on tap. He is first in every step—with his support and money. He must belong to the different civic, religious, social and fraternal organizations.

He must subscribe his cash to every movement. He must buy one or more tickets to every benefit. He must join every public move. He must help foot the bill on every side. And he must pay the biggest taxes. He is a big man in the community, because through the largeness of his heart and pocketbook he is so considered. His stock and all holdings are fully assessed. He does not wish to, but there is no escape. He is too well known and gets the fullest measure of attention from the powers that be.

And with all of this the State of Mississippi is calling upon him to pay a 3 per cent gross sales tax!

Now the question arises, where is all this taxation going to end? Mississippi is well nigh bankrupt. To bankrupt the source of taxes would be suicide. Another case of killing the goose and the golden egg.

The trouble about taxes is that they won't come down until people have more money and by that time nobody will care whether they come down or not.

L. & N. PARKS ALONG THE COAST.

NOTEWORTHY of mention in commendation is the attention and care given the depot premises of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company, from Bay St. Louis on to and including Ocean Springs.

The L. & N., too, has been hit hard by the depression and unfair competition, but it has never let go on its work of beautifying and sustaining the depot grounds in and around its respective depots along the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Railroads, and ours is no exception, have retrenched through all avenues of operation. They have reduced their forces, cut every seeming surplus expense until little if anything is left for the pruning knife. However, with its public spiritedness, so frequently evinced, regardless of locality, the Louisville & Nashville continues its gardens and parks along the Coast.

This is quite to the credit of one whom too frequently and unjustly has been put under the category of "corporations have no souls," and other like reproaches. The L. & N.'s best test of its popularity and that its way of doing must be right is best attested to by the manner in which its employers display a loyalty that is more than ordinarily marked.

Keeper James of the L. & N. garden and park department, is not only a successful gardener and landscaper, but he and his small force cover a territory that is pretty wide and scattered. It is always well to give credit to whom credit is due. We in too many instances take too much for granted.

If you want to know what killed the Police Gazette it was the competition of the film magazines where you can usually see more of more actresses than the old barber shop standby ever dared to print.

VIEWS OF OUR NEWS

By Chicagoan

A Review of the News of Last Week's Echo.

Chicago, Ill., March 15.
A HERO who risks his life to save that of another and thus becomes a nominee for a Carnegie medal: Another world famous athlete, his prowess rewarded by a position as coach at the eastern college; the president of the local Rotary Club selected from the officials of fifty clubs to preside at the 'President's Breakfast' at Baton Rouge; a parent-teachers' organization with a remarkable record; thus do the citizens of Bay St. Louis keep their city in the front rank; and thus did last week's Echo modestly record their accomplishments.

The March lion has been cavorting around Bay St. Louis pretty lively lately, so the Echo indicates in the editorial which warned of fire dangers. Seems as if he scared the gentle lamb plumb out of the country too. For one week at least this was a lion's country. If any one of presidential candidates could carry the north, south east and west like that his election would be assured. And sometimes it looks as if everything was changing these days, along with the length of ladies' clothing. Years ago Winter came with Christmas, or else I'm losing my memory. Now it comes with the income tax deadline. But really, I like the modern systems best. Christmas is a time for cheer, why not let's have all our dismal days at once?

Last week's forceful editorial and John T. Meyers' colorful article about the Lindbergh kidnapping were among the best of the many which filled hundreds of pages in American newspapers. The entire world in fact, put aside for the time being all thoughts of the war in China or the persistence of the financial depression. In a million homes mothers hugged their own babies a little tighter. Some of those little ones are in danger too . . . starvation threatens their very existence. But the mothers are thankful that their dear ones were still at their sides and they were confident that the masters of the earth would soon ordain that they might again have food.

After March 14, predicts the Echo Bay St. Louis will have a tax payers' organization with state and national affiliations. In these days of general curtailment, property owners and other tax payers feel the need of a reduction in governmental expense. Their chief problem lies in the fact that the taxes we are called on to pay this year are, for the most part, required for obligations incurred before the depression. The interest and the principal due on such obligations must be paid, and there must also be money for current expenses. Worried public officials will welcome any and all suggestions the tax payers organizations can give.

Of course, things like 'that will happen. Didn't Spring itself trip up and stumble backwards onto the bony knees of old Winter? Just the same, I suppose F. B. Blackman would not mind how badly the seasons scared themselves. No weather calamity could be as painful as the double fracture of his leg received when he was hit by a jumping cable. But the accident Spring suffered will soon be forgotten, and the Echo chronicles the glad news that it won't be so long until Mr. Blackman is around well and happy again.

When the Rotary Committee selected the night school benefit entertainment their choice was not a story of a dark and scary side of life. They agreed upon 'Rhymes and Rhythms,' abounding, so the Echo says in humorous numbers as well as some in a more serious vein. Thus the Rotary is again helping in the battle against the mental effects of the depression. They are doing their part, the same as are the more publicized men now asking that dollars be put into circulation. Smiles, also help a lot, when they are in circulation.

The bridge players at the pretty party given by Mrs. Ed. Arceneaux for the "Young Matrons" learned a little more about the methods used by Mrs. Roger Boh and Mrs. L. M. Gex. They now know how bids are made and tricks are raked in with all the gentleness of a lamb. But when the scores were tallied it was found that these two ladies had gathered the lion's share of the points earned that pleasant Wednesday afternoon.

With the last game of the tournament, the basketball season came to an end. Magnolia was the victor, so our entertaining student writer records in last week's Echo. That result brought elation to Magnolia and disappointment to other places. But the players on the losing teams are not without compensation for their season's work. They have learned to play the game well in every sense of the word.

BETTER TIMES.

Times are getting better, Feel it in the air, Fling away each fetter, Cast away each care.

Set your lips to singing, Fold away your frowns, Set your souls to winging; Garbed in glory gowns.

Say good-bye to sorrow, Clap your hands with glee, Greet the glad to-morrow, Frank and young and free.

Trip away from troubles, Jubilee with joy, Blow your shiny bubbles, Blissful as a boy.

Evil days are over, Happy times are here, Romp with every rover, Free from every fear.

Dance away depression, Scamper with success, Shout the fine confession, "Lowering clouds are less."

Sound a high hosanna, Blow a bugle blast, Lift a lofty banner, Dreary days are past.

Better times are breaking, Skies are bright and blue, Faith and hope are waking, Love and laughter, too.

Let the weakling whimper, Let the cynic whine, Prove and test your temper, Show your spirit's shine.

Wear a rainbow bonnet, Flaunt a crimson plume, Rhyme a lilted sonnet, Give a laugh to gloom.

Better times are breaking, Bliss for you and me, Mirth is in the making, Joy and jubilee.

A MARCH SNOWSTORM.

BY JOHN T. MEYERS
(For The Sea Coast Echo)

The ghostly shadows of a bleak, frosty, night Slowly vanishes into obliteration, as the icy fingers Of a cold, gloomy, dawn reach out across the horizon. A heavy, overhanging, veil of grey enshrouds the city And its awakening populace. Cathedral bells in the distance chime forth New-born inspiration for souls devout and faithful. Tiny, feathery flecks of white, floating gently aloft, Herald the approaching snowstorm. Birds dart about in hurried endeavor, Seeking scant shelter against the blinding elements. Faster, with added fury, comes the downfall of snow. Defiantly, whirling, twirling, Driving with bold resoluteness. Its work of whitewashing the green-hued garments Of earth's early springtime attire Is soon accomplished. Blossomy fruit trees, Alike roses in the full of bloom, stand aghast Like beautiful nude statues Amid an atmosphere of ruin and desolation, Sadly bewailing this mischievous prank Flayed by nature in a capricious mood. Eager childish faces, Tiny noses flattened against frosted window panes, Gleelessly watching the glittering snow Envelope housetops, lawn, and countryside Deeper, deeper, deeper. In its huge, spreading, blanket of whiteness. "Lindy," a German Police dog paces swiftly up and down, Pausing occasionally to gaze skyward, As if voicing protest against the storm. Bravely he shakes the coated snow from his powerful body. And again continues his vigilant watch. The reign of this cold, white monarch, Forcing his rule 'ore this Spanish-American city Will be only a matter of hours; prophesy proclaims. King Sol, caught for the present unawares, Will shine full strength Upon this bold invader from northern climes. Ruthlessly destroying the handiwork of his rival With warm, brilliant, rays of sunshine. Hail! All ye Hail! And prepare Mighty King Sol will be welcomed to the throne.

Kite Flying Hazards.

Mississippi Power Company is making a drive at present to prevent injuries or deaths due to flying kites near electric lines. The Company is urging every one of its employees to warn children that kite strings are often conductors of electricity and are an ever-present source of danger when in contact with energized wire. Kite strings are particularly dangerous when wet and kites with wet strings or metallic strings or with strings containing metallic threads should never be flown in the vicinity of electric wires.

This campaign is part of the continuous program of the Company to prevent accidents.

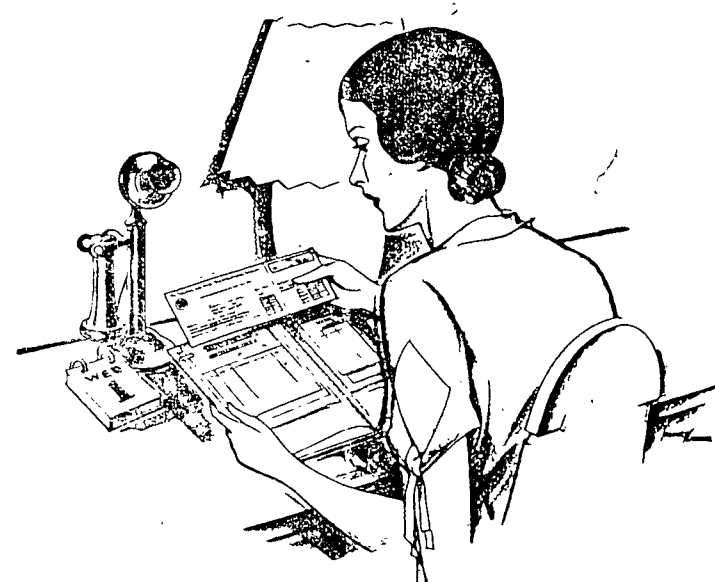

term. Their lessons will serve them well in the interesting years that still lie before them. You've seen two automobile loads of folks bound for the same place. The members of one group are interested in the journey. The beauties of the landscape and their congenial companions give them joy. The other group drives like mad, interested only in getting to their destination, and not at all concerned about what they'll do after they arrive. Both groups remember are enjoying their auto rides.

Restless, could not sleep

"THERE were days when I felt like I could not get my work done. I would get so nervous and 'trembly' I would have to lie down. I was very restless, and could not sleep at night.

My mother advised me to take Cardui, and I certainly am glad she did. It is the first thing that seemed to give me any strength. I felt better after the first bottle. I kept it up and am now feeling fine."—Mrs. T. R. Gibson, Fort Payne, Ala.

A small but Important Item on the Family Budget..

Frequently people who come to the telephone office to order a telephone, tell us they have found that there is no economy in trying to get along without the service. Its many advantages, they say, far outweigh the small cost.

Doing without telephone service, they explain, hampered the social activities of the whole family and restricted their opportunities to enjoy life.

Trying to do without a telephone had resulted in their gaining a more appreciative understanding of the true value of the service. So they arranged the family budget to include telephone service.

The advantages of a telephone in the home are so numerous and the cost so very small that it really doesn't pay to try to do without it.

You, Dear Reader, So Take Warning.

There are many reasons you should subscribe to your home-town paper. In Editor and Publisher, national magazine for journalists, one of these reasons is illustrated in this story going the rounds of the nation's press: "Once upon a time a nickel nurse sent his kid to borrow the neighbor's paper and the kid upset a hive of bees and soon was covered with lumps. His father ran to help him and caught his chin on a clothes line and sprained his back, fell and broke a $25 watch. The clothes pole fell over the car and smashed the windshield and mother, rushing out to see what occasioned all the excitement, upset a five-gallon churn of cream into a basket of kittens, drowning all of them. The electric flatiron burned thru the ironing board, setting fire to the house, and firemen broke all the windows and chopped a hole in the roof. The baby ate a jar of pickles and got cholera morbus and the doctor's bill was $15. The dog ran away with the hired man during the excitement, the dog bit a neighbor's kid and the calves ate the tails off of four night shirts on the clothes line.

"Moral—Subscribe to your home paper. Don't borrow it!"—S. A. "Light."

STILL AT IT.

Cardington, Ohio—Mrs. Alice E. Van Sickle celebrated her 86th birthday recently. She has been writing since she was 14 and is America's oldest newspaperwoman. She edits a column for the Morrow County Independent, a weekly newspaper here.

COMING EVENTS CAST THEIR SHADOWS AT KILN CONSOLIDATED HI SCHOOL

Parties and Banquet Follow Fast—Father and Son Banquet Thursday Evening—Hom Economic Girls Plan and Execute Parties.

Parties and banquets foretell the closing of Kiln school. The school will close April 1, at 8 o'clock with the graduates exercises. The senior play, "Mother Mine" will be given Wednesday night, March 30 at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to both of these exercises.

Father and Son Banquet

The annual Father and Son Banquet at which the boys in the agriculture class entertain their Dads was held Thursday night, March 10, at the banquet was the eighth annual affair where the boys and Dads met together in a social way and became better pals by discussing problems that both can work out together.

The banquet was in the form of a chicken spaghetti supper with tomato salad and red tea to add to the effectiveness of the delicious chicken and spaghetti. There were plates for sixty persons, fifty-four of which were Father and Sons. The food was prepared by Mrs. Lumpkin and the girls in the Home Economic Classes with the artistic assistance of Mrs. A. Orr.

The program follows: Welcome, Edward Anderson. Response, Mr. Farmer. Live-At-Home Program for Farmers by Mr. E. E. Lumpkin. Agriculturalist at Kiln School. Everyone acclaimed the Banquet a splendid success.

TWO NEW PLACES OF RETAIL BUSINESS FOR MAIN STREET BEACH

J. J. Fordinal, proprietor of the Blue Ribbon Bakery, Main street and Old Spanish Trail, has leased from Mr. Litre, the Mauffray building, on beach, formerly occupied by him for the Pitre Restaurant, now moved further northward, for a branch bakery shop, at which not only bread but all kinds of confectionary products, for which the Blue Ribbon is well known, will be sold to the retail trade in the beach front section. Mr. Fordinal plans to have this branch bakery shop ready as early as possible. This is a mark of expansion and enterprise.

Colson Bros., proprietors of the Red Star Fish Market, have leased the Arnold building, head of Main street, formerly occupied by the A. & P. grocery store, and is preparing to open the Red Star fish market there. Messrs. Colson are both wholesale and retail dealers in seafood and the new place will not only carry an extensive line of all kinds of fish etc., but will prove of convenience to the buyer in one of the main retail business districts of the city. Messrs. Colson are getting the place in readiness and plan to open ready for business at an early date.

WORK AND PLAY AT S. J. A.

THREE-MINUTE NEWS.

Re-rrr—Hello—Yes. Yes, this is me, of all people is it really you? Gee, it's great to hear from an old pal. You didn't get a letter from me? That's odd, maybe it's because I didn't write—Hey! don't hang up, I've lots to tell you. I promise. What? O, the news? S. J. A.? I'll say there is. How many minutes? Three! That's too short. The coast tournament? You heard? You bet it was exciting. You did it. Oh, well, it was a great game anyway—who? Don't speak so loud. What? I can't hear you. What fellow? S. S. C.? Of course they did, both teams were swell. No, I didn't cough. Huh? More News. Let me think. Oh, yes, another tournament. Yes, I know we like them. Who? Oh, between the Freshies, Sophs, Juniors and Seniors. Which will? The juniors of course—why? Cause I'm one of them I suppose. Well, wish us luck anyway. After basket ball, sports? plenty. Oh, volley ball, track, tennis and what? Times up? Why, I haven't said hardly—Hello, Hello, Gee, they've cut us off.

SENIOR PENNANTS ARRIVE.

We had been waiting so long, but the glad news finally came, that they were here at last. What? Our pennants, letters, and memory books of course. When we twelve "illustrious" seniors went running down the hall you may be sure no little noise was made, while we brushed by every obstacle to our goal. Mother Claire's office and there they were, as beautiful as our wildest dreams. The pennants, large and sporty, the letters, light and cute, and the memory books, everything that could be wished for. We're all delighted with them and maybe for a while our rings won't be getting such a rush of admiration as I feel sure the sweater will come in for some attention.

WHO WILL WIN THE RACE?

Every class in the High School has taken upon itself the duty of ransoming a ragan baby. The seniors have chosen a little Indian baby. The Juniors, just to be different, have decided that a little negro will be their choice. The Sophomores have selected a little Chinese baby, while the Freshies, last but not least, are giving a Japanese baby their special thoughts.

The elevator on the Bulletin Board records the progress of each individual class in the race to make its little "portegee" reach the baptismal font first.

We hope that by the end of this Lent we will be able to tell you that at least four little abandoned souls have been made safe for heaven.

GROWERS HIT HARD BY COLD WEATHER IN STRAWBERRY REGIONS

Two Million Dollar Loss Is Charged to Freeze Last Week-End In Hammond Territory.

Strawberry growers of the Berry Belt in and around Hammond, are charging off one million, 24-cent crates, approximately $2,000,000. As a result of the freezing weather experienced for three successive mornings.

Various growers said plants in some sections are reported damaged. A while back when growers complained that an excessive rainfall had prevented them getting their plants from under grass are now thankful that they did not, for the freezing weather found this grass-covered plants protected and with no more freezes during the latter part of March such plants will produce quality fruit.

It is conceded that the bulk of the crop is set back about 30 days but even then will move weeks ahead of crops in the strawberry producing state north.

Early vegetables were put out of commission by the cold weather and replanting will be resorted to.

Owner of Diamond Rings Found in Cap Identified By Texan

Louis Daiches, jeweler, Fort Texas, came to Picayune Friday of last week, says the Picayune Item newspaper, and identified 13 diamond rings which were taken from the cap of Charles Louis Oglesby, alias J. W. Ward, who was buried in Palestine Cemetery, Friday-afternoon.

Mr. Daiches stated that he operated a branch store in Breckenridge, Texas and early on the morning of November 9, robbers entered the store and held up the clerk and robbed the store of jewelry amounting to $9,500.00. Mr. Daiches also stated that part of the stolen goods was found buried in a tin can near the highway not far from the scene of the robbery. In the pursuit the robbers lost a shirt bearing a "J. W. W." laundry mark. The name of J. W. Ward, appearing in newspapers, in connection with bank robberies and the recovery of 13 diamond rings from Ward, attracted Mr. Daiches' attention. He made investigations at once and decided to come to Picayune to make further investigations.

Each ring was tagged with a code cost mark which was identified by Mr. Daiches. He consented to leave the rings in possession of Sam T. Russ, sheriff of Pearl River county, until Mr. Russ was satisfied that he was the rightful owner.

assembled in the S. J. A. Gym and there were given a talk by the Rev. Leo F. Fahey.

Fahey spoke of vocation in general but particularly stressed the religious vocation. He made it clear to the Socialists that priests, Brothers and Sisters—have many hardships to endure and that it is not very easy to relinquish all one's contact with the outer world to take vows of poverty, chastity and obedience, but he also stressed the fact that to those who have the courage to follow Him, Our Lord has promised a hundred fold.

Ocean Springs Drops Out of Gulf Coast Base- ball League For 1932

Ocean Springs, 1929 and 1930 champions of the Mississippi Coast League and a strong contender for the title last year, forfeited its franchise, it developed at Gulfport Monday at a meeting of the league board of directors.

"Ocean Springs' resignation," Director Harry W. Westbrook said, "was decided by officials of the club when they found difficulty in raising adequate funds to compete with other Coast League clubs in securing outstanding players."

Indications were that either Pasagoula, Gautier, North Biloxi or Lyman would make a bid to replace Ocean Springs in the six-club circuit that includes Biloxi, Gulfport, Pass Christian, Bay St. Louis and Waveland.

The directors adopted a schedule for the opening of the season April 3 with the championship Biloxi club at Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian at Gulfport and Waveland at the city to take over Ocean Springs' franchise.

L. H. Abrams of New Orleans attended the meeting and exhibited the championship trophy to be presented the winning club at the end of the season. The directors adopted the National League baseball.

AT KING'S DAUGHTERS LOCAL EMERGENCY HOSPITAL

King's Daughters Hospital is almost filled to capacity. Sunday, with four emergency patients, following the auto wreck on Waveland back road, the place was well filled to overflowing. Fortunately for the victims, Bay St. Louis was able to afford immediate hospital conveniences and medical attention.

Junior St. Pe, aged 7, who was hurt with a fractured skull, it is learned from late information at New Orleans, will live and his condition shows unusual improvement.

George Summers, aged 10, victim of pneumonia, whose life hung in the balance for quite a while, is now on the road to recovery, and the likable child, who has won many friends and sympathy in his battle for life, has many visitors.

F. B. Blackman of Gainesville, who had his leg broken in a stumping accident, is improved and shows marked cheerfulness over the prospects of early recovery. He is a nephew of Former Sheriff Joe Jones.

The first birth at the new hospital building took place Saturday. A fine boy baby, who will be known in life as Charles Stachle. Both mother and child doing well. Plan to go home soon.

Mrs. Emile Lacoste, professional nurse, of this city, is on night duty, assisting Mrs. Craft, in charge, and aiding to help suffering humanity. The hospital is fortunate to procure local professional assistance.

St. Margaret's Plea For Help For The Poor

St. Margaret's Daughters are again making an earnest appeal to their many friends in behalf of the poor people of our city.

The winter months, and especially the cold weather of the past few weeks have been rather hard on families of little children and aged, invalid people; and due to the shortage of employment they have been forced to seek aid of charity organizations.

Baskets are placed in various stores within view of everyone and donations would be appreciated to help in this line.

Anyone so desiring to make a contribution of food to help feed the hungry and especially little children can do so by placing it in the baskets or by sending them to Mrs. Charles Gordon, president, of St. Margaret's Daughters, 121 Union street.

BAY PANTHERS HOLD PRACTICE GAME IN READINESS FOR '32.

Manager Luc Keys Players Up—Another Practice Game Sunday—Assignments.

Manager Luc had his players out last Sunday and went through two hours of practice, consisting of infield, outfield and batting practice.

Cotton Collier, one of the regulars, is rounding into shape fast. Cotton seems to have put on some weight, but it doesn't seem to have slowed him down as he really burns the boys up with his swift ball.

Boudin another regular, has taken on more weight—but it seems to agree with him as he moves around the diamond like a real ball player. Lawrence Luc and Bob Strong who came to the Panthers last year are showing up very well. Lucien Favre a new comer who is trying out for first base seems to have the job. Forrest Favre also a new comer is working around second and looks very well. Son Capdepon who came to the club last year is working the hot-corner and from all indications has the position well taken care of.

Due to the cool weather quite a few regulars also new prospects, failed to show up for practice.

Manager Luc has requested them to be on hand Sunday for assignment to the various positions. A practice game will be played Easter Sunday, therefore he expects all players, regulars and prospects to be on hand. The club plans to place on sale the season tickets this week.

HOMESPUN SENSE

Pithy Quotations from Public Addresses of
MELVIN A. TRAYLOR
President, First National Bank, Chicago

"It is time some leadership and some party called our attention to the fact there is no magic cure for the ills and evils of human folly. We trod the primrose path of extravagance, of thoughtless and of almost criminal neglect of every sound principle of human conduct, from the individual to the government, and the individual was aided, encouraged, and abetted on that path by the government and those responsible for its administration."

"One of the biggest things was a watershed state of mind in which we all thought we were richer than we were, and were living beyond our means."

"In my opinion, no great division of human society has ever been led to, and lied about, as much in the same period of time as has the American farmer."

"This then is my hope for our future—that we may be rich without forgetting to be righteous; that we may be powerful without being offensively proud; that we may be nationally minded without being narrow-minded; and, finally, that we may live in a world of fact without surrendering our faith."

"I would urge consideration of the complete abolishment of so-called poor trading, which, as I am informed, has about it most of the characteristics of plain card shooting, and few, if any, more redeeming features than that delightful Ethiopian pastime."

"It is bad enough when the intelligent and wealthy speculate and lose, but when scrubwomen, day laborers, small home owners, wives and youths speculate and lose, simply because they can go to a broker's office and get credit for small sums, the practice ceases to be defensible on any ground."

"Out of the stress and difficulty of the situation I believe gradually we shall return to simpler thinking and simpler living. For it seems to me that we want above everything to abandon the struggle to live up with the Joneses, and to rediscover the true purpose of life, which is the joy to be found in the simple virtues of industry, thrift and sane living. I believe in our people, in our country, and in the God who directs our destinies; and I welcome the future with confidence and unshaken faith."

Different Methods. Badger—Do you put up your summer duds with camjor balls to keep the moths away? Brokeleigh—No; I usually put them up with gill balls to keep the wolf away.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church held its monthly meeting Tuesday March 15th at the home of Mrs. Leo Seal.

Mrs. Porter Barnes conducted the devotionals using as her theme "The Triumph of Jesus" and based her remarks on the meaning of Palm Sunday.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald discussed "Citizens' Responsibility For Law Enforcement." Bringing out in a forceful manner that ultimately law enforcement is in the hands of the private citizens. She paid tribute to the politicians who, after years of seemingly little progress, had courage enough to carry on toward the realization of their ideal for honest government.

During the business session, announcement was made by the president that the usual cake and pie sale would be held on Easter Saturday, at a down town stand, place to be announced later. Ladies of the society will take orders any time prior to Easter.

Mrs. Seal and Mrs. A. P. Smith as joint hostesses served delicious refreshment at the close of the meeting to an unusually large crowd.

TO-MORROW.

To-morrow will bring life anew. The sun will shine again. The flowers and the budding trees will crown the earth again. Hb, God give me the strength to That sorrows pass away. Each time the evening sun goes down And life . . . but a day! We must have grief, to gain a strength; Without some strife and pain We could not reach the final goal. Or e'er expect to gain The peace, which floods the human breast. When earthly comforts flee, So I will place my trust in God I know He'll comfort me! So, while my trials bear me down, And crush my aching heart, I'll try to see to-morrow's light And do today my part: I'll try to make each Yesterday Just stepping-stones of deeds, I'll make each trial . . . a blazing torch. To find another's needs! —EDNA RUTH MARTINEZ

COUNTY ATTORNEY SPEAKS

Before Bay St. Louis Rotary Club on Fallaciousness of Jury System—And Cites.

"The fault is largely with our jury system," said County Attorney Emile J. Gex, Wednesday noon in an address before the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club, "that so many men criminally charged go free."

Continuing, the well-known prosecutor said that not only was the jury system of trial at fault and the cause of so many went free, but the mauling sentimentality by a mis-guided public and mis-placed sympathy were responsible too frequently for the miscarriage of justice.

Mr. Gex related local instances where in the public mind there was no doubt of the guilt of the accused, but an unhealthy public sympathy would resolve itself in favor of the man charged as he languished in jail and that this sentiment would spread that when the time of trial came it was either felt that the man incarcerated had already been sufficiently punished or for other unfounded reason he was allowed to go free.

"Only too often after a verdict of 'not guilty' had been read were the public assembled in court ready to applaud and the erstwhile prisoner was surrounded by crowds of handshakers and made a hero. This hero stuff of men charged with serious crime was not only a bad example but a slap at justice and weakened the safety of society."

"And again, these men criminally charged and subsequently liberated are later arrested and again charged with another and more serious crime."

The two cases cited by Mr. Gex had their sequence. Older men are punished as a rule, but young men go free. The latter then inevitably go wrong rather than reform and learn the lesson from their experience.

The address was one of the best heard by Rotarians, and was followed in approval by remarks from Joseph O. Mauffray and Dr. C. M. Shipp, who substantiated what the speaker had said, and spoke from their own observations.

OF SOCIAL INTEREST

(By Our Society Editor)

Mr. and Mrs. Nobby Dick were host and hostess Sunday afternoon to a delightful bridge party at their home in Main street, complimenting Mrs. Clement Jaubert-Fueich, who came out from New Orleans on a visit to this interesting little family at their attractive home into which they recently moved.

Three tables of players made the afternoon pass all too swiftly. The successful scorers of the afternoon Mrs. Fred Herlihy, Mr. Fred Herlihy, Mrs. C. G. Moreau. Seasonable refreshment were served after the series of games had been played.

MRS. RUGAN ENTERTAINS AT BEACH HOME.

Mrs. Ralph Rugan was hostess on Friday afternoon of last week at her hospitable home on the north beach front, her guests, of two tables enjoying bridge until a late hour. Mrs. E. G. Ferchaud and Mrs. J. J. Gravemberg were high scorers. Mrs. Edmund F. Fahey won the consolation while the cut prize went to Mrs. H. C. Glover. This was one of the most delightful parties of the immediate season.

ENTERTAINS FOR HOUSE GUEST.

Miss Louise Crawford was hostess to an afternoon "at home" on Thursday afternoon, at the Crawford residence in Citizen street, when Mrs. Caroline Dale Snedaker, of North Hampton, house guest, rendered a number of selections on the cello and of which she is quite an artist, having been heard here other seasons at a private recital. A number of Bay St. Louis friends were invited and enjoyed this unusually delightful evening.

On To Meridian For Mississippi Congress of Parent-Teachers

One of the most interesting features of the annual meeting of the Mississippi Congress of Parents and Teachers in Meridian, will be the celebration of the George Washington Bi-Centennial. There will be a "tree planting" at which a tree will be planted and dedicated to the memory of Washington and the children of Mississippi. Every county is to have a share in this. Each county president or representative is asked to bring a small bottle of water from her county so that the tree may be watered by the waters of Mississippi. The program will be most interesting and will include Mother's choruses who will sing "The Tree of the P-T. A." and "My Tribute."

There will be lots of conferences on every phase of P-T. A. work, on types of associations, high school grade school, consolidated school, P. T. A. conference on Membership, Parent Education, Summer Round-Up, Mental Health, Program Building and anything else to be brought up. These will be the kind of conferences where you can ask questions, present your problems, and get the help you want. Every president, District, County and local will have the opportunity to find out everything she wants to know at the two administration conferences to be personally conducted by the State President, Mrs. W. D. Cook, assisted by other state officers.

Members of the P-T. A. will feel amply repaid for going, by the rich experiences in store for them in Meridian.

Limited Engagement.

Wife (newly married)—Have you really engaged a cook, darling? I didn't think we could afford one. Husband—We can't afford to keep one long, so you had better learn all you can while you have the chance.—Passing Show.

Looked That Way.

She—Do you really think I married you for your money? He—Well, the way my money has been going out it looks suspicious.—Boston Transcript.

BAY REVIEW OF W. B. A. CELEBRATE 21ST ANNIVERSARY

on a lot donated by Mrs. John N. Stewart, facing the City Park. A more logical and pleasing location could not have been secured and it was through the admiring friendship and willingness of Mrs. Stewart to assist the cause that such lot was made possible. The land has liberal measurement and is indeed a handsome donation.

Absent Though Remembered.

Although unable to be present, Mrs. B. R. Engman's absence was noted with regret. Excluded from being present did not prevent, however, fitting tribute was paid her for the helping hand and generous activities that she from time to time contributed to the success of the local order.

It is expected Bay St. Louis will be well represented at the Chicago pageant this year.

Features of the evening's program included an impersonation of a famous movie actress by Miss Irma Koch, picturesque and temperamental.

Mrs. James Sylvester, Mrs. Arthur Scaffide and Miss Lillian Tudury sang two vocal duets.

The anniversary cake was a two-story affair, a triumph of the confectioner's art. On the surface were the names of Mrs. Engman, Mrs. Croy and Mrs. Little and the inscription, "Happy Birthday." This cake was the product of Fordina's Blue Ribbon Bakery and donated by the proprietor.
